MBA International Business

FAQ

1. Who is the affiliating University?

University of Greenwich, United Kingdom. The affiliation has been approved by AICTE, Govt. of India with Apeejay Svran International College. Further this program is supported by Govt. of U.K through UK-India Education and Research Initiatives (UKIERI).

2. Is this a program of University of Greenwich run by Apeejay Campus or program run by Apeejay and affiliated to University of Greenwich?

MBA program of the University of Greenwich have been approved by AICTE, Govt. of India for Apeejay Svran International College. This is a full time 24 months course. The degree will be awarded by the University of Greenwich to the students. The status of the students will be same as it is for the international students who are studying at Greenwich Campus. All examination and awards of degree will be the University of Greenwich, UK which has global recognition. The added advantage of this program is that it has the approval of the AICTE by which the degree is also recognized in India.

3. Will I be eligible for Ph.D/Higher studies after this degree?

Yes. It is a fulltime globally recognized MBA degree. With this you can register in India for higher studies or overseas. You can visit University of Greenwich website for further details.

4. What is the status of the University of Greenwich?

The University of Greenwich traces its route to 1890 and is number one amongst the Universities in UK for student satisfaction and number 3 in research publication. The Royal Naval School is well known world over for management education, which is now School of Business with the University of Greenwich, who is offering this program.

5. How many Indian students study at Greenwich in Management School?

There are over 4000 international students in the Management School. More than 700 students go for management degree at University of Greenwich every year.

6. What is the main advantage of this degree as compared to degree awarded by the UPTU?

The Greenwich degree has a global recognition with which you can move overseas for a job.

7. Will we get the work visa?

During the study if you wish to undertake your guided internship overseas of the U.K you will be entitled for recommendation of visa. Normally, the visa will be stamped for project overseas.

8. I don’t want to go for overseas what is the advantage for me in India?

The curriculum of this program is based on international best practices and is accredited by Association of MBA’s, Europe. Also you are entitled for the membership of chartered institute of management in U.K. With these two added advantage and Indian exposures the MNC’s in India will prefer this kind of students.

9. Will this program provide me specialization in more than two streams?

Yes. There are compulsory papers and specialized papers. You may choose your specialization in more than 1 subject. This will be supported by your project work and guided internship.

10. What type of Industry will give us in internship?
Training & Placement Cell of Apeejay as well as the University of Greenwich will assist the students in work placement and internships. Each student will have to undergo a guided internship in the Industry. It is expected that a student will get stipend depending on the performance of the students.

11. Is it a residential program?
Yes 12 months you have to necessarily live in the hostel.

12. Minimum eligibility
Graduation in any discipline by fluency in English.

13. What about my visit to Greenwich Campus
Yes it is possible but the expenditure will born by the students.

14. Can working people apply for this?
Yes. They will have to attend the classes for 12 months.

15. How can I apply?
Please visit our website and download the form from website and fill it up and send it to Apeejay.

16. Cost of the form?
Cost of the form is Rs. 700/-

17. University of Greenwich is doing similar program in Malviya National Institute of Technology, Jaipur. The placement record has been excellent.

18. How the course will be deliver?
The course leader of University of Greenwich have prepared the detail course lecture schedule. The course is guided by the Program Leaders at University of Greenwich and will be overlooking the conduct and delivery of the program as per the standards and guidelines of University of Greenwich. The professors may visit Apeejay from time to time to ensure the conduct of program as per the guidelines and may take lecture during their visit.

19. Classes are starting from October 1, 2010.

20. Additional benefits
Lecture note, books and access to online journal, ppt’s and on the webCT etc. One laptop to each student, access to SAP and a certificate from the Institute.

21. Medical Insurance
Free medical insurance and access to Kailash Hospital Facilities.